O CARLOS DO FADO

Se vivo neste estádio ao fado o devo Dão-me razão
as palmas que levo

e até o jazz me deu já valor estamos em fase do maior rigor

A minha mãe foi das vozes reais que no fado houve deu-me Deus dentes e nozes e como lhe aprouve

Estudei fui educado até andei no liceu O meu pai tinha de seu uma casa de fado

A sorte passou-me ao pé bateu à minha vidraça «serás fadista p'la graça de Deus e não do cach'mé»

Canto do fado a saudade entre linhas de prazer o sentimento de ser Um homem na cidade

Graças dou a Deus Senhor e à Judite por sinal três pitadinhas de sal tempero do meu amor o qual num desassossego amandouparóinferno umas todas no meu ego e pediu ao Padre Eterno que no cais não haja lodo eu nisto fiz muito gosto e com muita convicção quando ao fado me dei todo

Este puto ai este puto ai este puto este puto

Series of 3 silkscreen prints depicting a corner of Fernando Pessoa's bedroom Fernando Pessoa's bedroom, as well as other real or imaginary ones. The poet identifies himself by the objects in the room and by the window, which shows the house in front of him in different times of the day: sunrise, sunset and sunset

Technique: Silkscreen printing

Dimensions: 51 x 38 cm

P.V.P. Unit: 350 €

The representation of an open window is reminiscent of the verses of the poem Tabacaria, by the heteronym Álvaro de Campos, which reads: "windows of my room, [] You give to the mystery of a street constantly crossed by people, to a street that is inaccessible to all thoughts []"
